5) Other comments, suggestions, needs?

We planned this event to provide a broad overview of the military/performance textile/apparel markets and how companies might receive further benefit from these important and growing markets for the industry.

Interest has been expressed in a subsequent event focusing on more detailed information in dealing with the military, potentially as a workshop-oriented conference where we would have speakers provide detailed information on trade shows, military events, contacts, and other sources of assistance in dealing with the growing military textile/apparel market.
